What is an EAP?

An EAP is a benefit that assists employees with personal & professional challenges they may be facing in their daily life. For example, when you feel physically unwell, health insurance is there to cover the costs of healing. Similarly, an EAP is there to assist with your mental health.

Issues Include:

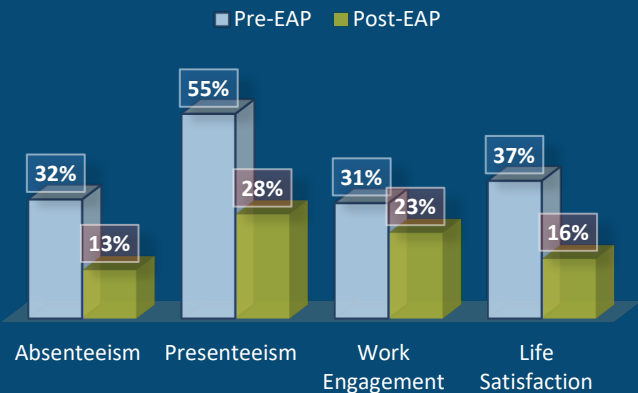

- Marital & relationship issues
- Separation & divorce concerns
- Parenting
- Substance (alcohol/drug) misuse
- Gambling
- Stress- Work & Home
- Work concerns
- Career planning
- Depression & Anxiety
- Loss & Grief

Why does an EAP matter?

Companies who add an EAP to their benefit package regularly see a decrease in long-term employee issues such as absenteeism & presenteeism and an increase in work engagement, and general life satisfaction—a win for businesses and employees. On average, employers see a return on investment of $3 for every $1 spent on the EAP.
