What is a Scholarship?

¿Que es una Beca?

- Scholarships are monetary gifts given to a student to help pay for his or her education.
 - Scholarships are not required to be repaid, like a loan is, but may have requirements to maintain eligibility, such as keeping a certain GPA, meeting with an advisor, or delivering a report or project.
 - There are thousands of scholarships with very different award criteria and may be based on specific academic achievement (merit-based), due to financial circumstances (need based) or based on personal interests or achievement.
 - Scholarships are hugely important-it is like getting FREE money for your education!
- Becas son regalos en forma de dinero que son dados a estudiantes para ayudarles a pagar por su educación.
 - Su estudiante no tiene que regresar el dinero a quienes se lo regalaron, como los préstamos. Pero si podrá ver requisitos para mantener la beca como tener un cierto promedio, estar en contacto con el donador, o hacerles proyectos o reportes.
 - Hay miles de becas y todas son para diferentes tipos de estudiantes. Hay becas basadas en calificaciones, dificultades financieras, o intereses personales o carreras de interés para su estudiante.
 - Las becas son sumamente importantes! Es dinero GRATIS para la universidad!

After the First Year

Después Del Primer Año

- Many local scholarships are not “renewable”: meaning that they are only good for one year.
- Once on campus in the FALL, students should locate the school’s scholarship office, and speak with their academic advisor about scholarship opportunities within their major or do internet research connected to their personal and academic interests.
- Students should also reach out to their old high school counselor or to PreCollegiate to talk about other opportunities or for renewable scholarships.
- Remember: HAVE A PLAN! All scholarships have DEADLINES and many may be early!
- Muchas becas locales son solamente para un año
- Al llegar a la universidad en el otoño los estudiantes deberían ir con la consejera académica sobre oportunidades para becas dentro del programa de estudio o interés de su estudiante.
- Los estudiantes también deberían contactar a sus consejeros de la high school o a PreCollegiate para platicar sobre oportunidades de becas que puedan renovar para otro año.
- Recuerda: ¡Ten un plan! ¡Todas las becas tienen fecha de entrega, y muchas pueden ser tempranas!

Thank you!
¡Gracias!
